

SHCS Summer Reading for Bible (2024-2025)

Students returning from the 2023-2024 school year (regardless of registration timing) and new students who register during the summer must complete the summer reading assignments on the regular assigned due date, which is the first week of school. New students who enroll in August or after the first day of school will be given an alternative assignment involving a selection from the book or a related text.

Entering 7th Grade:

Bruce Olson, Bruchko (any edition)

Entering 8th Grade:

Brother Andrew (with John and Elizabeth Sherrill), God's Smuggler (any unabridged edition except the Young Reader's Edition)

Entering 9th Grade:

Elisabeth Elliot, Through Gates of Splendor (any edition)

Entering 10th Grade:

Don Richardson, Peace Child (any edition)

Entering 11th Grade:

Edward Judson Adoniram Judson: A Biography (ISBN 1360122494 or 1332939368)

Entering 12th Grade:

Nabeel Qureshi, Seeking Allah Finding Jesus (any edition)

There will be an in-class assessment during the second week of school. This will be the first TEST grade of the quarter. All returning students and new students who enrolled during the summer must take this assessment at the time it is given. Those who enrolled in August will be given an alternative text to read and will be able to take the in-class essay on the day it is assigned in class. No exceptions or extended deadlines will be given.